love your enemy

The mission of Have A Cow is to foster connection and provide opportunity for folks from different backgrounds to come together, break down cultural barriers and serve one another.

Growing up kids used to say, "Don't have a cow, man!" meaning don't get all excited about something. But we want you to HAVE A COW! We want you to get excited! And specifically we want folks to get excited about getting to know each other, serving each other and even loving each other - even if we're from very different backgrounds - even if we consider each other enemies.

Have A Cow beef is grass-fed, grain-finished from our ranch in Owensville, MO

coffee - tea - craft beer - spirits

At Have A Cow we roast our own coffee, using a Guatemalan bean and blending a medium roast with a dark roast to create a full-bodied blend.

Our teas are freshly brewed loose-leaf teas crafted by Piper & Leaf Artisan Tea Co. All of their teas are blended with as many local ingredients as possible, straight from the garden, farm, forest, and briar patch.

We source our craft beers from local breweries as much as possible - with a few of our favorites thrown in from around the country.

Every beverage is chosen and prepared with intentionality and care to brighten your experience at our restaurant. We're so glad you're here!
